

Tabby and Tiger

Here is a photo of my two kittens. Look at Tabby. When I watch TV, I always pick him up. He rests his little head on my shoulder. I can feel his nose against my neck, and he purrs in my ear. When his tummy is full, he closes his blue eyes and falls asleep.

Tiger likes to play. He chases balls and climbs up my trousers. I have scratches on my face, arms, legs and hands. Sometimes, Tiger hides under the sofa and jumps on my feet when I sit down. Ouch! That hurts. There are lots of sharp teeth in that mouth.
